Greeting & Welcome

+Call to Worship

God created a world of beauty and abundance.

A world where there is enough for everyone.

Yet we live in a world where some have more than they need, while others struggle to get by.

Where fear divides us, and power is not always used for good.

But there have always been people who choose another way.

People who stand for justice, protect the vulnerable, and refuse to give in to fear.

We gather to remember God's vision for the world –

All: And to find the courage to help it become visible among us.

+Offertory Liturgy

God of abundance and mercy, you have given us a world with enough for everyone, yet we know that not everyone has enough. Help us challenge the ways we live that leave some with too much and others with too little. May these gifts help build a community where all are valued, needs are met, and justice and compassion take root. Help us make your vision of a more generous and just world visible among us. Amen.
